PINE HILL MINE IS BEING REOPENED BIG MINING PURCHASE IS IMPENDING

Levi B. Johnson who was a Nevada City visitor Thursday stated that the Pine Hill mining property in the Wolf district is being reopened. This property which was a former producer became involved in litigation in 1902 and has been closed down since that time.

This property which was opened up some thirty years ago is now being made ready for operations again by Mr. Johnson. At the time the property was first opened a stamp mill was put and complete surface works but these were dismantled and removed from the property.

New owners have secured title to the property and the old workings which consist of a vertical two compartment shaft, 200 feet deep and four tunnels, 800, 600 and two 400 foot. There are said to be 70,000 tons of ore averaging from $6.50 to $7.50 blocked out ready for treatment. This ore is in a ledge nearly fifty feet between walls and is composed of quartz, quartz porphyry and quartzite with barite scattered through the mass. The values run in gold and silver, in about two to one proportion. The values occur in the quartz and quartz porphyry. In addition to the main ledge, there is also a parallel vein carrying two per cent copper, with some values in the gold and silver. This copper value is at the water level. There is little or no copper showing above the water level, although heavy iron sulphurets are found.

In addition to the gold and copper showings there is a ledge of barite of undetermined extent but analyses show the barite to carry 93 per cent barium sulphate. There is also a bed of pure white kaolin which has never been been developed to learn whether there is sufficient quantity for commercial development A ditch of the Nevada Irrigation District passes through the property which gives an available water supply.

Metallurgical tests recently made on the quartz ledge shows that it is readily adaptible to cyaniding and the ore will lend itself to the flotation treatment. The mine is ideally located as to power as a hightension line of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company passes within a mile of the property.

A large amount of the kaolin was contracted to Oakland parties but owin gto inability to use the state highway bridge over the Bear river with large trucks and trailers the shipments have been held up.

One of the largest transfers of mining property is expected to be effected in the next few days in the history of Nevada County gold mining. Pending the actual signing of the paper, The Nugget is not privileged to publish the details of the transaction which has been under way for some time.

An extensive sampling of the property has been completed and bears out the statements made by the owners and the buyers are reported as highly pleased with the outlook.

The completion of the deal will see large developments under way at an early date as the purchasing interests as being amply financed.

The company involved is a newcomer to this section of California and its engineers are checking up on a number of properties with a view to making Nevada City the hub of large production activities.

CITY OF SIX MINE WILL RESUME OPERATIONS

Underground operations are to be resumed at the City of Six mine south of Downieville in the next few days, according to A. E. Hodginson, general manager who was in Nevada City Friday on his way to the property after spending the winter in Los Angeles. The operations were closed down last November for the winter.

Present operations will consist of driving the lower tunnel in to cut under the rich shoot encountered in the upper tunnel last year The face in the lower tunnel is now in a mineralized zone and the shoot may be encountered at any time although the maps indicate a possible 300 feet to go. Some crosscutting will be carried on as the tunnel is driven.

There is no milling equipment on the property and Mr. Hodgkinson states that none is contemplated until a sufficient tonnage of milling ore has been blocked out to insure steady milling operations. About 3500 feet of underground work was done last year and about 600 feet of ore shoot was developed in the upper tunnel. Some surface buildings were erected last year.

The company holdings consist of ten full claims and a fraction, the Carson, Carson Extension, Contact, Minnesota, Dakota, Pudge, Imperator, Bob, Mt. Stephen, Conqueror and Treasure.

CHARLES EDEN ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY

Charles Eden, a native of Nevada County has announced his candidacy for supervisor, at the August primary election.

In an interview with The Nugget Mr. Eden says: "I take great pride in this county and am looking toward the future when Nevada county will have a good system of roads, mail routes and the county's natural resources developed. I understand road building and bridge construction, having been employed by the Department of Public Works, Division of Highways, for seven years. During the time spent with the Division of Highways, there has been built a number of beautiful highway bridges, and I have had a great deal of experience in modern road construction.

"I favor a good road through Blue Tent as this is the gateway to the scenic lakes and mountains. There also should be a good road to Camp Celio at Lake Vera, a road that may be traveled the year round with automobiles, as well as with horses. This, I believe, can be accomplished without a higher tax rate."

Mr. Eden states that if elected he will see that the county's money is handled in the most economical manner, and that every man under his supervision does an honest day's work.

His announcement of his candidacy appears in another column of this issue of The Nugget.

ST. PATRICKS REBUILDING PLANS ARE PROGRESSING

The new plan for financing the construction of much needed buildings at Grass Valley for St. Patrick's Orphanage are progressing nicely, accordirg to the citizens' committee headed by Judge George L. Jones. A. C. Dunning and L. V. Longbottom representing a leading life insurance soicety have arrived to take up the work of putting the idea over and providing the work without making any direct solicitations of funds. The plan is to utilize $10.30 of each annual premium on each life insurance policy purchased for a period of fifteen years and apply it toward the building fund, this amount to be paid by the company. Legal reserve insurance policies are sold under this plan which has the endorsement of the diocese and the committee.

PLACER MINING TO BE FEATURED IN CELEBRATION

Nevada City looks to be getting ready to stage a Fourth of July celebration with a real mining flavor to it with the flying start acquired at the preliminary meeting called by the city trustees on Thursday night to formulate plans for the observance, at the city hall.

Frank Davies was selected as temporary chairman and M. D. Coughlin as temporary secretary. A second meeting will be held tonight at the city hall to which every citizen who is interested in seeing Nevada City put over a humdinger of a celebration, will not miss.

The only committee appointed was one consisiting of E. C. Uren, E. J. Kilroy and the publisher of The Nugget to look into the feasibility of having a placer mining exhibit in actual operation in one of the numerous diggings in the city limits which would prove a great attraction to city visitors. Edward C. Uren was responsible for the suggestion and it met with ready response.

It is proposed to conduct a mainature hydaulic mine, and various other forms of placer gold extraction. Sluices would be rigged up, rockers and longt toms as well as ordinary panning. Hand rock drilling has also been proposed if sufficient contestants can be rounded up in these days of machine drills, to make an interesting contest.

The meetng tonight will largely decide the type of celebration to be staged and the make-up of the general and other committees who will handle the affair.

JUDGE JONES WAS PAID FITTING COMPLIMENTS

One of the outstanding features of the diamond jubilee celebration of Madison Lodge staged at Grass Valley Saturday afternoon and evening was the evidence of esteem in which our widely loved fellow townsmen, Judge George L. Jones, is held thruout the length and breadth of the state as well as in the hearts of his lodge brethren at home. The galaxy of Grand Lodge officers present for the occasion all did obeisance to the long service the Judge has rendered in the field of Symbolic Masonry.

Many members of Nevada Lodge were present to felicitate Madison Lodge on its anniversary. Past Master W. E. Meservey made the presentation of a beautiful silk American flag on behalf of Nevada Lodge and a touching speech was voiced by M. Henry Argall. The flag was borne to the rostrum by John W. Daekr with Wm. Gracey and C. M. Ferguson acting as deacons. Grand Master Will H. Fischer was presented with a specimen of gold quartz and Grand Senior Warden C. M. Wollenberg presented Madison Lodge with a gavel made from stone taken from King Solomon's quarry and olive wood from the Mount of Olives.

PLACER ANNEXATION IS CLAIMED TO BE FAULTY

Attorney T. L. Chamberlain of Auburn is invoking Attorney General U. S. Webb's permision to bring a suit to invalidate the entire Placer County annexation to the Nevada Irrigation District. The petition for exclusion of certain lands made many allegations of irregularities in the annexation proceedings which are being made the basis of the proposed suit.

The Nugget has it on good authority that the management of the District is demanding $90 per day for the hearing of the exclusion proposals, possibly for the purpose of discouraging too frequent requests for such proposals.

A daughter was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deal at the Nevada City Sanitarium.

W. D. Hutchison who has been undersheriff under George R. Carter for the past year and a half has tendered his resignation to take effect June 1st. Mr. Hutchison has not announced his future plans.

Mrs. Charles H. Ninnis is visiting relatives in Berkeley.

INDIAN HILL HYDRAULIC MINE IS OPERATING

Hydraulicking operations are progresing at the Indian Hill mine above Camptonville and it is expected that 25,000 yards of gravel will be washed this season, according to P. H. Leonard, superintendent of operations. The property is on the North Yuba river and tailings are impounded behind the Bullards Bar dam under government supervision by the California Debris Commission.

The property which has been operating since December 11, 1925, has 1200 acres in its holdings of virgin territory and it is estimated that there are four million yards of gravel to wash. There are a number of quartz outcroppings on the property but these have not been prospected. The channel runs up to 125 feet in thickness and is 800 feet wide in places.

JOHN RAGON TAKES OWN LIFE SATURDAY NIGHT

The lifeless body of John Ragon was found early yesterday morning in the timber across the road from the county hospital by W. B. Glidden as he was coming to town from the Nelson place. He notified Dick Rodda who identified the body and had the remains removed to the Holmes Funeral Home.

Mr. Ragon had taken a magazine the evening before and started for a walk. It is presumed that he had procured some cyanide as he died fro mtaking poison. He was in poor health and had been despondent.

A brother George Ragon came from Lincoln yesterday and a sister Miss M. Ragon lives on Grove street.

NEW FOLDER IS ISSUED CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Copies of the handsome new folder of the Chamber of Commerce were received the past few days and are now being distributed to the public. One of the striking things to commend attention aside from the well chosen illustrations is the three color map of this section of the state which was executed by the master hand of Edward C. Uren and hand lettered throughout.

The publicity committee which prepared the booklet was composed of G. J .Rector, Charles E. Parson and W. H. Griffith.

CONGRESSMAN ACTIVE MINING CONSTITUENCY

Nevada City's native son in legislativehalls, Congressman Harry L. Engelbright delivered a telling speech on the floor of the House during the past few days in behalf of the mining industry. Our congressman is starting an educational campaign for the purpose of advancing thes mining industry before Congress.

The Nugget has a copy of the speech and will excerpt from the same at an early date.

DOUBLE DANCES WILL ATTRACT TO SAN JUAN

They are going to have a regular dancing festival up at North San Juan tomorrow night when two dances will be given in separate halls, one featuring the old time dances exclusively and the other the new steps and jazz numbers. Two orchestras have been engaged according to Sam McCullough, head of the San Juan Ridge Water Users Association which is sponsoring the affair. An all night cafeteria will be featured.

The proceeds from these dances will be used to help keep up the water ditches on the Ridge which are being tended by the Association. It will be a large night in the colorful history of North San Juan.

Tiikets are $1.50 per coupie and are goon at either hall.

The final card party of the seires staged by the Woman's Civic Improvement Club will be staged at the Masonic Temple tonight.

Newton Blough was down from the Five Mile House last week on business and a pleasant caller at The Nugget office.

SURVEY TO BEGIN ON TAHOE UKIAH ROUTE TO EAST

State engineering crews with present headquarters at Dutch Flat are engaged in making a survey of the proposed new route of the Victory Highway.

The new route, a portion of which was completed and thrown open to travel between Colfax and Gold Run last year, will leave the present road at Gold Run, keeping to the west of the present road and the Central Pacific railroad, passing across the old hydraulic diggings directly through the residential section of Dutch Flat, below the cemeteries to Bear River; then up Bear River, past the Zeibright mine to Lake Spaulding, which it circles on the east side, meeting the present road on the long flate below Tamarack.

The new route will attempt to negotiate the summit with grades not exceeding 6 per cent and curves not exceeding 300 feet radius and it is believed at this time that it can be done. It will be free from snow earlier in the season than the present road, especially between Cisco and Dutch Flat, as it is considerably lower in elevation.

Surveys of the extension of the Tahoe-Ukiah route from Central House to Bear Valley will again be under way in a few weeks by the rews now working under Chief Irish on the Truckee route.

FIRST PINE GUM TAKEN DEMONSTRATION TREES

The first crop of pine gum has been harvested this week by F. C. Ernst who is here to sign up sufficient acreage to start a Pine Products Industry going in this section. Ernst is quite pleased with the gum obtained from his various trial tracts and he assures us that the quality is every bit of what he expected.

Last week he also made a few improvements on his tools to cut down the size of the faces without reducing the yield. Such small improvements will also tend to give a whiter grade of gum and since he must beat a high production cost here, he everlastingly concentrates on quality improvements.

The gum obtained was of a light yellow and white color and should make excellent rosin and turpentine. The essence contained is of the highest grade altho at present still small of percentage. Since the trees need coaxing from 6 to 8 weeks the small quantity obtained the first week permits the conclusion that a large flow of gum can be expected. Ernst assures us climatic conditions are ideal and if the acreage necessary can be obtained it seems that nothing can stop the industry from starting up here.

Only 10,000 acres is now needed for signing up to make possible the establishment of the refinery in this county and this should be possible in the next few weeks. This will provide 500,000 more trees. Mr. Ernst reports that the timber stand of the trees he wants is of excellent size and age and should produce a life long supply of gum which would assure a large payroll industry for Nevada county, as several hundred men would be regularly employed in addition to the large amount of money to be paid the timber owners for the use of their trees.

The main difficulty encountered has been securing contiguous tracts which would make for economical production but this is gradually working out. The next few weeks should see the work of securing the necessary contracts completed if the timber owners will show speed in signing up. A large number of containers have been placed on specified tracts to show how the gum is secured and the method of working.

E. J. Baker who attended the Native Son Grand Parlor at Redding last week was injured in an auto accident when the machine in which he was riding to see Burney Falls, was bumped into by another machine and he was pinned underneath. He was cut about the head, bruised but suffered no serious consequences. He was taken to the nospital ana was not long incapacitated.

LET'S MAKE IT A MINING CELEBRATION

A NOTEWORTHY proposal has been made by Edward C. Uren, sterling town booster, that the Fourth of July celebration this year in Nevada City, be built around the mining idea, and there is much of merit in the proposal that commends it to the town tboosters. Mining has been the backbone of Nevada County's wealth for many years and will continue to be for many years to come, and anything that will keep that thought uppermost in the eyes of the world should be advocated. With the great influx of mining individuals and companies which is on at the present time, such a celebration will tend to focus interest in no uncertain manner. There are several available sites where the various forms of placer mining could be exhibited and in a manner that it could be viewed by a large number of people. The matter will again be taken up in the meeting at the city halll tonight and it is to be hoped that a great deal of interest will be taken to make the celebration one long to be remembered.

WITH SEVERAL large mining deals under way at the present time in this section, interest in gold mining is rapidly on the increase and it may be confidently stated that the coming year will see a great revival of interest in Nevada and Sierra counties. Every day The Nugget office is the mecca of many seekers of information on various properties. A large fund of information and data has been acquired the past year on the hundreds of mining properties in the two counties and this information is readily available to any interested persons. A mining center that does not have its mining information bureau is sadly handicapped and The Nugget is endeavoring to fill that particular niche. Mining men can assist greatly by listing information regarding their properties with us for our files. Mining literature is also on file and the leading mining publications. Maps of the various districts are being added so that a complete fund of information may be at hand. AAW

FROM OUR READERS

Editor of The Nugget—

There is another method of pyramiding land values beyond the hope of profitable production which also deserves the careful consideration of every good citizen in this state.

We refer to the "refinancing" of irrigation districts, where instead of letting ailing projects go to the bankrupt court and be "washed out" and revalued on a fair basis, bond houses and creditors step in, issue new securities, and further inflate the overhead of a project which is already manifestly too high.

Such manipulations may be nourishing for the bond house or the bank that does the "refinancing," for they get their commission, but the sales price on many of our projects has been inflated to a level which can eventually mean but one result unless a miracle happens and a land boom causes idea of value to aviate.

It is, of course, commendable to want to keep out ofthe bankrupt court and protect the bond holders, but when a project has been on the market for a considerable time, and when old settlers are giving up and new settlers are not appearing to take their place, why postpone the day of reckoning?

Investors are beginning to see the point and look askance at land project bonds, and our state bond commission ought to get the vision and quit certifying them for investment by savings banks.

Common sense indicates that we have gone farther than good business and common honesty justify in our attempts to support the value of irrigation district bonds. Meanwhile no one has supported the settler who bought the land at impossible prices. Isn't it time to face the facts and let nature take its course with the over-inflated land project.—Pacific Rural Press.

It is announced that the "super conscious mind" has been discovered in France. Shucks! that's nothing new! We've got a lot of them among our American intelligensia.

A radio is reported to have frightened a burglar out of a New Jersey store he was looting. Pol Parrot seems to be in the way of losing her time honored job.

You can invent a lot of highfalutin' names for Common Sense, but nobody's ever made a usable substitute for it.

If some of'em get in the movies on looks, some of the others must get in when nobody's looking.

"I took the receipt for this cake out of the cook book," said the wife.

"You did right," said her husband. "It should never have been in there."

A woman may get more thrill out of a mouse, but she gets more exercise out of a moth.

The two things that will make radio rotten in the near future are summer and politics.

You'll notice that a great man enver tries to terminate the interview quickly if you are telling him how wonderful he is.

Feminine nature changes little, fortunately, as the centuries roll on and we'll bet the neighbor women used to say about Helen of Troy, among other things, that you couldn't deny she was fairly good looking but that she certainly had no style about her.

If this keeps on, we will have the spring poet write some stuff about winter in the lap of spring, or what have you.

Many of the old time clinging vines now have granddaughters who are ramblers.

RURAL ROUTE TO GET DAILY MAIL SERVICE

Commencing July 16th, the rural mail route out of Nevada City will be given daily service instead of the three time a week service, according to a telegram received by Postmaster P. G. Scadden last week from Congressman Harry L. Engelbright who saw the proposal through in Washington after strong representations had been made from the local office.

John Webster has been carrying the route ever since it was established two years ago.

W. H. (Bud) Wayman, also of this place has announced himself as a candidate for the office. Wayman has resided in this section all his life, and many of his friends are supporting his candidacy.

FRENCH CORRALIANS TO ATTEND THE DANCES

FRENCH CORRAL, May 26 (Special to The Nugget)—Dancing! Dancing! It seems the air is full of it and the San Juan Ridge is coming back to its favorite pleasure of the past.

The dance given by the Grass Valley and Auburn orchestras at San Juan last Saturday night was well attended and all had a joyous time. We hope to have another such time next Tuesday night, the 29th, when the San Juan Ridge Water Users Association will give the double dance, the old time and the new time dances. We hope for a big attendance for the cause is a worthy one.

Sunday as usual brought distant visitors. Many were strangers whose names we did not learn.

Mrs. Alex McPherson and sons Willis and Elton and daughter Elizabeth and her mother, Mrs. J. Dalberg, all former French Coralites, but now of Sacramento, accompenied by P. Pegnolia, a former San Juan boy, were visiting rfiends here on Sunday.

W. P. Clerkin was here on business here last week. He and his sister Miss Millie have gone to their mountain home for the summer where they have a large cattle range

Adam Laboun and family of Sacramento were Sunday visitors.

Miss Louise Moulton and Mrs. E. Chatty were San Juan visitors on Tuesday.

Mrs. E. Sutherland accompanied Miss Louise Moulton to Grass Valley Friday where she went to bring her sister Frances home for her weekend visit.

A most interesting and excellent program was presented by the French Corral school last evening. It was given in two parts, representative of Mothers Day and Memorial Day and the second part given to the graduating class. Miss Barbara McMinn, Harry Browning and Clyde Browning were the graduates.

The diplomas were presented by W. E. Moulton, president of the French Corral Board of Trustees. His congratulations and advice to the graduates were well presented.

The school room was most beautifully decorated for the occasion. Streamers of different colors lead from all corners of the ceiling up to a huge basket suspended over the stage. From this basket which was filled with flowers, hung garlands of beautiful roses and many colored flowers and vines. Potted plants formed a bank in front of the stage. With the soft light, the effect was suggestive of a moonlight scene and was most beautiful.

The program was concluded by singing the Star Spangled Banner. In this the entire asemblage joined.

A rising vote of thanks was given our efficient teacher, Mrs. E. Schwartz. The program presented reflected much credit on her wonderful efforts. Refreshments were served to conclude the happy evening.

The housecleaning season has been pretty well observed in the homes, but there is a lot of it to do in politics still.

The fact that the athletes can throw the hammer a long way does not prove that they wll be able to pitch the hay up into the barn.

In spite of the fine observance of Better Homes week all over the country, it is doubtful if you will find anyone at home when you go to some place to call.

Now the question is as to whether the movement to outlaw was is going to try to abolish matrimony.

BOOST NEVADA COUNTY

Everything being equal, would you give a Nevada County product your preference?

The pride shown by the citizens of a community in their local affairs, together with cooperation, is what builds up that community.

ZINC—O—LITH, made by the Glidden Company, uses Barium from a Nevada county mine. It not only equals other paints but in many respects is better. In price, it is less.

Boost your own county by using its products.

Local In Management

State-Wide In Operation

The relationship between this branch of the United Bank and Trust Company and the head office is best described by the following quotation from a radio address delivered on May 2, 1928, by W. F. Duffy, Senior Vice-president:

"We realize fully that the resources of each branch are representative of the deposits of the community which that branch serves, and that the legitimate needs of that community must first be served. For that reason, we have given our managers and advisory Boards a greater authority than a local bank could exercise in a great many instances."

IRRIGATION DIRECTORS FACE TEHAMA RECALL

RED BLUFF, (SACRAMENTO BEE)— Charging that the members of the board of directors of the El Camino Irrigation District have shown themselves incompetent to discharge the duties of their offices, that they have been extravagant in handling the affairs of the district, that they have made large expenditures and failed to show for what purposes the money had been used, and that they were discourteous, arbitrary and unreasonable in their treatment of water users, petitions asking the reall of the three directors, C. C. Smith, L. A. McDonald and E. A. Cripe have been circulated in the district and will be acted upon tonight at a speiial meeting.

Those circulating the petition reported that they were having no difficulty in obtaining signatures. It is reported that a heavy majority of district water users have signed the documents and that recall of the three officials is assured.

Levies Cause Strife.

Special assessments levied on certain land in the district last year was the first cause for general complaint and this resulted in several actions being filed in the Tehama County superior court. These cases are now pending.

"Let No Dog Bark"

Once, in Amy Lowell's summer house in New Hampshire, we stole from our bedroom next to hers to breakfast in a distant corner where no rattle of trays would disturb the sleeping poet after a night of work. The window framed Monadnock in morning magnificence, and nature also seemed asleep. A curious scraping sound broke the early stillness, and into our ken, over the shingles of the sloping piazza roof, painfully crawled the white-haired housemaid, with something white held between her teeth. A napkin had been forgotten. She would not risk disturbing Miss Lowell by the opening of a door.—Elizabeth Ward Perkins in Scribner's Magazine.

Disease Spread by Pets

It has been pretty generally understood for some time that domestic pets have the facility of imparting the germs of several diseases to those humans who come in intimate contact with them. Instances have been known where tuberculosis, mange, ringworm and some other diseases have been spread by household pets and now pyorrhea has been added to the list. Some persons foolishly allow dogs and cats to "kiss" them and the habit is a dangerous one. Even when uninvited to be so intimate dogs have a habit of licking the flesh of their owners whenever the chance offers and in so doing are liable to pass along the germs of pyorrhea.

Good Heart Can Rout Hawks of Adversity

What an unimportant trifle may often change the course of a man's life!

Once I was going thoughtfully along the highway.

My soul was weighted down by heavy forebodings. I was overcome with despondency.

I raised my head . . . straight before me ran the road between two stiff rows of poplars. And across the road, about ten paces in front of me, were hopping in single file a family of sparrows, full of life, merriment and courage.

One, in particular, distinguished himself by his bold, sideways hoppings; he stuck out his little breast, and twittered as bravely as if he did not fear the devil himself. A true conqueror!

Meanwhile a hawk circled overhead, whose destiny it was, perhaps, to devour this very hero.

I looked, was forced to laugh, and regained my self-possession. My gloomy thoughts had vanished; I felt again courage, energy and life.

A hawk may be circling over me; but the devil take!—let's keep a good heart!—From Turgener's Poems in Prose."

JOHN MARTIN, ELECTRIC LINE BUILDER PASSES

John Martin who promoted and built the Nevada County Traction line between Nevada City and Grass Valley in 1901, and projected a line to Marysville, passed away in San Francisco the past week after a long and useful career in California business circles. He built the Rome power house and later the Folsom, Colgate and Yuba plants which became affiliated with the Pacific Gas and Electric system, of which he was president for some years. Mr. Martin first came to Nevada County to bid on water pipe contract for Nevada City and while here he became interested in the generation of electricity by water power.

THE NUGGET PAGE OF MINING NEWS

MARIPOSA COUNTY IS SHOWING ACTIVITY

Mariposa County which is at the southern terminus of what is termed the Mother Lode, is showing an awakening interest in mining this year, reports the Mariposa Gazette which has been consistently boosting for its mineral resources. If some deep mining could be encouraged in that country it would do a great deal toward putting the gold mining industry in that section on a stable foundation.

The principal activities in that county are at the Virginia property near Coulterville and the properties purchased by Belle McCord Roberts, Long Beach newspaper woman.

The Virginia which has been taken over by Nevada capitalists is making a strong showing in the development work so far.

Frank Zichosh and associates of San Francisco have purchased from Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McCartney, the Sweetwater group consisting of the Gage, Green Quartz, Douty, Crocker and other claims. Development work is now getting under way.

George W. Bever is opening up the Gray Eagle property near Coulterville and the Crown Peak near Bagby. The company handling the work is the Butte Boys Consolidated Mining Co., of which Mr. Bever is the president.

A nine foot ledge is reported opened up on the Crown Peak which shows good values.

Work is to be resumed on the Gold King property near Coulterville in the near future.

John Roberts and J. W. Thompson have bonded their properties in the Coulterville section to outside interests.

The Spread Eagle group of claims in the Whitlock district have been transferred from Nick Mullins to T. M. Bains and associates from Colorado. The group compries the Spread Eagle, Miners Hope, Monarch, Empire, Toll Gate and Mohawk. The Spread Eagle was located in 1854 and has a past production record. Martin Tresidder is in charge of unwatering operations on the properties.

AMADOR COUNTY

A mining property near Plymouth is being opened up by the Lopez Mining and Milling Company. Machinery is being brought from Virginia City. The property has been a former producer but idle since 1886 James George is in charge of operations.

Drilling tests are being made between Ione and Volcano for cement material which may mean the establishment of an importoant new industry. A 400 acre tract near Volcano is being prospected.

California has 4,000,000 hogs, not counting those who drive all over the road on Sunday afternoons.

How much worse it would be if we were born old and had to look forward to growing young and silly.

"Blue blood is all right in its way," remarks the observer, "but it is the fellows with the greenbacks who seem to get along best."

It's a short lane that has no road hog.

Heninger are reported to have uncovered a rich gravel channel just below the old workings in the Nash mine above Carrville. The Nash was at one time a large producer but has been inactive for the past twenty years. The old channel was sought for many years but owing to the deep overburden, prospecting was too expensive.

RED DOG IS COMING TO TO FRONT IN MINING

RED DOG, (From Colfax Record) Red Dog, the scene of early day mining activities is coming to the front again. A mining company has taken over some property here and will develop it.

Mrs. J. Simpson has had 5000 feet of lumber hauled in recently for mining purposes. She expects to put a large crew on the project. We all wish Mrs. Simpson the best of success in her enterprise at the old Red Dog diggings. Her prospects are of the best so here goes for Red Dog again.

TRAVELERS' ASSURANCE

MODERN travelers demand the comforts and conveniences to which they are accustomed. Travelers' assurance is an important function of the telephone—especially the rapid, convenient and economical telephone service now available to nearby and distant points.

The telephone way is an easy way to take the trouble out of travel—for making advance arrangements and hotel reservations—keeping in touch with the folks at home—making social and business appointments. And in emergencies, the traveler is only as far from help as the nearest telephone.

The general reliance placed upon the telephone by modern and experienced travelers is in itself assurance that—

To know is to telephone

WM. HAMAN PRESENTS HIS SENATORIAL VIEWS

William Haman, who is a prominent candidate for State Senator from this District, was a visitor in Nevada City and a pleasant caller at The Nugget office. Mr. Haman is a leader in Placer county political circles where he has been a supervisor from his home district of Roseville for the past eighteen years, a considerable portion of the time as chairman of the board.

In conversation Mr. Haman stated that neither the mining or farming industries were strangers to him as he has through his political work kept in touch with their developments for a number of years and feels that from the mining standpoint he can render very efficient service to the industry acquainted as he is with its needs. From a farming standpoint he owns acreage n Placer county which he has given a great deal of attention to.

When asked as to how he proposed to conduct the office of senator if elected he said that he proposed to be a year round senator instead of a 60 day or 90 day senator at Sacramento during the sessions of the legislature. That he wanted to keep in close touch with the needs of the entire district at all times so that when the legislature was convened he could be in a position to give intelligent attention to matters of import to his constituents.

Mr. Haman has been a resident of the Roseville seetion for the past twenty-four years and previous to that resided in Tehama county. He is no stranger to Nevada county as he has spent much time at different intervals on business and pleasure trips.
